Next Meeting: October 17 at 4:00 at the Village Green

Transportation Committee

- Next meeting will discuss the progress of ATMS construction, which has broken ground. Tim asked us to please communicate with friends and neighbors about the program.

Parks, Trails and Open Space

- There was a work party in September at the Village Green to remove invasive plants in the wooded area. Having discussions re making Carpenter Lake more accessible. Pursuing the transfer of Nike Park to the School District. Excited about the grand opening at Eglon, we will also have a work party for clearing, bring your loppers

Environment and Land Use

- The Committee is working to schedule a meeting to share thoughts and feedback on the County's Year of the Rural. Planning options are on the County website. There is a hearing on November 10, so there is still time to submit comments. Look for six documents online on the County site to review. An advisory group for the equestrian community has been formed following a discussion at the September KCAC meeting.

- Organization Reports

Rotary

- KNK Rotary had a busy September, and it looks to continue in October. Working with other Kingston and North Kitsap organizations, local Rotarians have sponsored the Village Green Community Meal, the Meet the Bucs 5K Fun Run, the Village Green Trail Work-party, the Town Water Basket Takedown, and the Highway 104 Litter Pick-up. Upcoming events include on October 11th the Eglon Park Grand Opening Trail work-party, and on October 29th a Soup & Chili – Spirit of Service Celebration, welcoming the public to find out about Rotary and other local service opportunities.
- Additionally, we are now receiving Grant applications for both Local and International projects. So far this year we have approved grants for the Kitsap Regional Library Foundation, Kingston Cares, the Great Peninsula Conservancy, the North Kitsap Anglers Armed Forces Derby, the Kingston Historical Society, and the Community Meal funding.
- Encourages people to volunteer at the schools, it is much appreciated by staff and students and fun for the community.

North Kitsap School District

- North Kitsap School District is gathering information and community feedback on two potential ballot measures: a renewal of the Educational Programs & Operations (EP&O) Levy and a Capital Projects Levy. Together, these local levies help support student learning, maintain safe and functional schools, and reflect community priorities.
- You are invited to join us at one of our upcoming community meetings to learn more and share your feedback:
 - Tuesday, October 14 at 6:00 p.m. – Hilder Pearson Elementary
 - Wednesday, October 15 at 6:00 p.m. – Kingston Middle School

Port

- The bathroom is under construction, it will support events, park users and commuters. Holiday lights are being repaired and restored, it is fun and the Port is looking for volunteers, check the website or call the Port. Passed the budget on Tuesday, many repairs are planned for 2026. The Cup and Muffin is putting on a movie October 11, 18 and 25, free at 10:00 am.
- Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe
- Check out the Halloween event and a mushroom event at Heronswood. Sending a community survey out for the Hood Canal better bridge project. Port of Kingston will speak to the Tribal Council about the annexation project.

Village Green Foundation

- Had a work session on the Master Plan for the woods around the Village Green, she encouraged people to volunteer for the monthly work parties to clear the woods of invasives. Noted the Sunday concert at Village Green, consult the bulletin, also online.

Kingston Chamber

- Working on connecting with the community, many follow ups from the Open House. Going to as many community meetings as possible to find out where the Chamber can partner and make a difference.
- October events include the Kitsap Color Classic Bicycle ride this Sunday, the second annual Scarecrow Crawl, with scarecrows at local businesses.
- Sponsoring the Ghoulish Gala masquerade ball Halloween party.
- Gearing up for Christmas in the Cove event.
- Trying to expand the Visitor Center hours with more volunteers.

Kiwanis

- There are new co-presidents, Dave Wetter and Mike Reed.
- Coho derby last month sold out, a 14-year-old won biggest fish.
- Sponsoring the Halloween Carnival at the Village Green on the 31st.
- Fall food drive in November
