AT-RISK YOUTH

RCW 13.32A

At-risk youth means a juvenile:

- I. Who is absent from home for at least seventy-two (72) consecutive hours without consent of his or her parent; or
- II. Who is beyond the control of his or her parent such that the child's behavior endangers the health, safety, or welfare of the child or any other person; or
- III. Who has a substance abuse problem for which there are no pending criminal charges related to the substance abuse.

Counsel:

Upon filing, an attorney will be appointed for the child. The parent is not entitled to court-appointed counsel, but may retain private counsel.

Fact-Finding Hearing:

A fact-finding hearing will be set within ten (10) judicial days. However, the matter will proceed only after the child is served with proper notice of the proceeding.

If the juvenile denies the allegations in the petition; a fact-finding hearing will be scheduled.

At the fact-finding hearing, the petition shall be granted if:

- The court finds the allegations in the petition are established by a preponderance of the evidence, or
- The juvenile admits to the petition.

If the petition is granted, the court will enter an order requiring the child to attend school and to reside in the home of his or her parent or in a placement approved by the parent.

Dispositional Hearing:

A dispositional hearing is set fourteen (14) days after the petition is granted. The court may:

- Request an Individual Service Plan (ISP) from DCYF.
- Set conditions of supervision for the child that include:
 - Regular school attendance;
 - Counseling;
 - Participation in a substance abuse or mental health outpatient treatment program;
 - Reporting on a regular basis to DCYF or any other designated person or agency; and
 - Any other condition the court deems an appropriate condition of supervision including but not limited to: employment, participation in an anger management program, and refraining from using alcohol or drugs.
- Order the parent to participate in counseling services or other services for the child requiring parental participation. (The parent shall be financially responsible for costs related to the court-ordered plan.)
- Order DCYF to monitor compliance, assist in coordinating court-ordered services, and submit reports review hearings.

No dispositional order or condition of supervision ordered by a court pursuant to RCW 13.32A.196 shall include involuntary commitment of a child for substance abuse or mental health treatment.
