Note:

If the landlord knows that the tenant is a person with a disability as defined by RCW 49.60.040 and the disability impairs or prevents the tenant or the tenant's representative from making a written request for storage, it must be presumed that the tenant has requested the storage of the property as provided in this section unless the tenant objects in writing. RCW 59.18.312(1)

A "Disability" means the presence of a sensory, mental, or physical impairment that: (a) Is medically cognizable or diagnosable; or (b) Exists as a record or history; or (c) Is perceived to exist whether it exists in fact. A disability exists whether it is temporary or permanent, common, or uncommon, mitigated or unmitigated, or whether or not it limits the ability to work generally or work at a particular job, or whether or not it limits any other activity within the scope of chapter 49.60RCW.
