Accidental Discharge of Firearm at the Bremerton Police Department's Firing Range

On August 15, 2018, Kitsap County Jail corrections officers were conducting firearms training at the Bremerton Police Department firing range, located on West Belfair Valley Road. At approximately 1508 hours, a corrections officer accidentally discharged his duty weapon. The corrections officer sustained a non-life threatening injury to his leg and was transported to an area hospital, where he is in stable condition. The Bremerton Police Department is investigating the incident.
